Summary Report

Aari work Add-on Course was conducted for the students of second year and third year. The students were taught 30 different stitches during the course. This course was organized to understand and know more about the art of aari work which is a craft that is practiced from Mughal period with different type of materials likes beads, sequins, zardosi, pipes, silk threads on various types of fabrics which can be converted into creative motifs for the surface embellishment. Total 37 students enrolled for the aari work. This course was of 3 credits which was conducted 5 days per week. Zardosi embroidery material required for doing the work was brought by the students themselves. The needles were provided by the college. Once the students had adopted this art, articles like semi stitch blouse, one pieces, waist belt, jewellery article like choker and earrings, handbag were made by the students. This gave a broad idea to the students regarding how to make use of the art into practice.

Course co-ordinator Mrs. Archana Patil took active interest in arranging this course and finding eligible teacher for conducting this course.

Mr. Alamgir a professional person in this field was approached to conduct this course of 45 days duration. Exams was conducted for this course with the time duration of 90 minutes.
