CSIBER Trust's College of Non-Conventional Vocational Courses for Women NSS Unit celebrated National Girl Child Day". On this occasion, a poster-making and slogan writing competition was organized by CNCVCW NSS Unit. Students through their posters depicted the importance of girl children in society and also gave a message of gender equality and women empowerment.

Principal Dr.A. R. Kulkarni in his address emphasized that girls are performing well in academics, sports, and cultural activities. NSS Chairperson Asst. Prof. Mrs. Archana R. Patil added that we have to take this message of equality to all the parents and NSS volunteers can play a vital role in this. NSS Coordinator Asst. Prof. Ms. Tejaswini R. Chile said in these online activities volunteers made posters with messages of women empowerment and equality. She further maintained that until we provide a respectable position to the girls in our society, we won't be able to build a healthy and developed nation.

From all departments, 20 students participated in this competition with enthusiasm.
