General Guidelines

PREVENTION

As with other respiratory infections like the flu or common cold, Public health measures are critical to slow the spread of illness.

Public Health measures are everyday preventive actions that include:

1. Staying home when sick.
2. Wearing mask when going out.
3. Following rules of social distancing (distance of at least 1 meter).
4. Avoiding crowded places.
5. Covering mouth and nose with flexed elbow or tissue when coughing or sneezing.
6. Disposal of used tissue immediately.
7. Washing hands often with soap and water.
8. Cleaning frequently touched surfaces and objects.
9. Seeking medical advice immediately if fallen ill.

Balanced Nutrition at all ages and at all times holds a key for this.

✚ Feeding our body certain foods may help keep our immune system strong. Here, in the context of COVID-19; the focus is more on super foods and Anti-viral foods. Consuming fresh foods, have balanced diet, be physically active, sleeping well & to reduce stress is a key to improve immune system and this is the first thing to prevent infection.

✚ Limited access to fresh food & eating highly processed foods like high sugar, high salt & high fat may lead to weaken the immune system. So choose the foods with high nutritive value which are affordable, easily available & have fairly long shelf life.

✚ We can better plan our meals by including these super foods and anti-viral foods. This will certainly help us to increase our immune power.

SUPER FOODS

1. Citrus Fruits

All Citrus fruits are the house of Vitamin C, the most potent Antioxidant which is thought to increase the production of white blood cells, which are key to fighting infections. Its easy to add a squeeze of this vitamin to any meal. Popular Citrus fruits include: Grapefruit, Oranges, Lemons, Limes etc.

Both green and black tea are packed with flavonoids, a type of antioxidant which helps in enhancement of immune system. Green tea is also a good source of the amino acid L-theanine. L-theanine may aid in the production of germ-fighting compounds in T cells.

7. Spinach

Spinach is not just a rich source of vitamin C but also that of beta carotene which may both increase the infection-fighting ability of our immune system. Spinach is healthiest when its cooked as little as possible so that it retains its nutrients. However light cooking also makes it easier to absorb vitamin A and allows other anti-nutrients (not required by the body) like oxalic acid to get eliminated.

ANTIVIRAL FOODS

1. Garlic: Therapeutic value of garlic is because of its antimicrobial, anticancer, antioxidant, cholesterol lowering & anti-inflammatory properties. The active components present are allicin, selenium, ajoene & thiocremone.

2. Ginger: It contains effective antioxidants such as gingerol, zingerol & Vitamin C. Ginger may help reduce inflammation.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Avoid Food waste: Buy & prepare food as per your family need hence it allows access of food to needy.

Be factual: Use fresh food first.

Go for home food & family meals: All of us have ample time to cook food and enjoy it with your children on table. Also involve your kids in cooking & teach them food safety.

Cautious about portion size: Work from home may lead to overeating. Don't make eating as a leisure task to be done. Listen to your inner hunger cues. Only eat when your stomach feels so and not your tongue. Identify your stomach capacity and eat that much only. Anything in excess is always dangerous.

Good food handling practices: Cleaning & sanitizing home as well as premise is important. Keep separate raw and cooked foods. Store leftover food to refrigerator (Below 5 C). Cook all food in potable water.

Be Hydrated: water is essential for all vital events happening in our body. Water is the media where all chemical reactions of our body takes place. Thus water is very much critical for maintaining health. An adult should drink at least 2-3 litres of water per day.

Say no to alcohol: Excess consumption of alcohol weakens immune system & makes certain drugs less effective.

Limit salt, Sugar & fat intake: Take salt 5g/day, limit sugar up to 5% of total energy (approx 6 teaspoon) & take fat 30% of total energy (from this 10% will be saturated fat).

Every problem has a solution.

Soon we will be finding the vaccine for COVID 19....

But till we should keep ourselves strong by following General as well as Dietary guidelines....

Keeping a positive attitude helps to move forward and conquer all battles....

Stay strong, stay immune!!!

- Nearly one out of every ten persons aged 18 years and above in India has raised blood glucose, which poses extra financial and service burden on health systems.

- If you don't have HIV but are at high risk of becoming infected with HIV, talk to your health care provider about pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP). PrEP involves taking a specific HIV medicine every day to reduce the risk of HIV infection.

Miss concepts of Spreading of HIV

HIV isn't spread through touch, tears, sweat, saliva, or pee. You can't catch it by:

- Breathing the same air
- Touching a toilet seat or door knob or handle
- Drinking from a water fountain
- Hugging, kissing, or shaking hands
- Sharing eating utensils
- Using exercise equipment at a gym

You can get it from infected blood, semen, vaginal fluid, or breast milk.

Mosquitoes spread HIV.

Because the virus is passed through blood, people have worried that they could get it from biting or bloodsucking insects.

When bugs bite, they don't inject the blood of the person or animal they bit before you. Also, HIV lives for only a short time inside them.

She concluded her speech by making us understand the importance of counseling and the need of awareness regarding Aids in youth which is then the future of India.
