The role of the youth in building a nation has raised several discussions in recent times. We all know how a clear-cut policy agenda is necessary for the development and planning of the policies of our country. The Young Inspirators Network focuses on guiding and helping the youth across Maharashtra about the same. This initiative by Young Inspirators Network, which started last year, aims to bring together college-going students and brainstorm ideas about Youth and Nation transformation with guidance from experts.

The CNCVCW Students twenty-six students participated in the Sakal "YIN Summit Summer 22 camp" enthusiastically. Accommodation and meal services were organized for students around the camp itself. Topics on Personal, Societal, and Professional development along with Politics and Economics were covered during the discussion and various sessions.

On the last day, they felicitated the best coordinator of the YIN core committee member, B. Sci. Food Technology student Ms. Vaishnavi Tembugade by giving her certificate.
