Mentor mentee report 2020-21

Mentor – Mrs. Yogita R. Mirajkar

The mentor mentee report is based on the issues raised by the mentees. Mentees are given an opportunity to express their concerns, problems with their mentor and the mentors guide the mentees for solving these problems or issues. Once the issues of the mentees are resolved they can focus better in their classes. Some mentees have difficulty in communicating in English, some are unsure about their career opportunities, some are poor in studies, some are confused about their career choices, some face time stress management issues, some are unable to adapt to the college environment and pattern of the study. It is possible to overcome these issues with a proper guidance. The main aim of this system is to help the mentees adapt the college environment as they will concentrate more in the academics and this in turn enhances the performance of the students.

Sr.no	Issues	No. of students facing an issue	Guidance	Outcome
1.	Communication	3	Guidance on social interaction	Showed progress after 3-5 weeks
2.	Career	-	-	-
3.	Time management	6	Suggestion on proper time management at home and in college	Improvement in management skills
4.	Health issues due climate change and due to new work setting	-	-	-
5.	Difficulty in new college place	5	Counselling on coping up with the new environment.	Progress in behaviour
6.	Unable to adapt with new subjects and pattern of study.	1	Counselling on preparation of timetable and work schedule	Improvement is observed.
7.	Stress management	16	Guidance on management of stress.	Improvement is observed.

The mentor has given best possible solution to the mentees accordingly. Some of the students didn't face any issues as mentioned above.

Mentees are given an opportunity to express their concerns, problems with their mentor and the mentors guide the mentees for solving these problems or issues. Once the issues of the mentees are resolved they can focus better in their classes. Some mentees have difficulty in communicating in English, some are unsure about their career opportunities, some are poor in studies, some are confused about their career choices, some face time stress management issues, some are unable to adapt to the college environment and pattern of the study. It is possible to overcome these issues with a proper guidance. The main aim of this system is to help the mentees adapt the college environment as they will concentrate more in the academics and this in turn enhances the performance of the students.
